

NON-TOXIC VEGETABLE PROJECT PRODUCTION OF ORGANIC FERTILIZERS TO INCREASE INCOME AND CREATE MENTAL HEALTH : BAN WANG KUM, RANONG PROVINCE

By Kumlai Somrak, Narumon Sinwisarn and Thippawan Palanupat

SITUATION

- Ban Wang Kum is in the entire wildlife sanctuary area
- From the impact of the COVID-19 outbreak , people in the community have decreased income and increased expenses.
- Chronic disease patients
- Laid off from work, no income
- Anxious, stressed, having debt from a financial institution and recover debt outside the system

TARGET POPULATION

- The main target group includes the population that will participate in the project. and expected behavior change for 15 people, groups affected. There are 35 people participating in project activities.
- The secondary target group is the population group that receives benefits from project operations.

PROCEDURE

- Cooperation between the community and community leaders
- Sharing knowledge and evaluation
- Improves the quality of life of people in the community
- Create new job opportunities
- Organic farming is beneficial
- promote the consumption of healthy food as well

OUTCOME

- Leader have knowledgeable 100%
- Haveing 3 occupational groups
- Increasing income for 3 occupational groups
- Haveing knowledge and skills in making compost 70 %
- Leaders have 60 % of information to evaluate performance for work development.
- 1 Facebook page for selling products.
- Network partners to follow up and support. Continuously 4 networks
- Online market supporting products of professional groups, 1 page
- Mental health improve 60%

MORE INFORMATION

<https://hospital.wu.ac.th/>

<https://www.facebook.com/Taibon40/>

<https://path2health.or.th/>

<https://nurse.wu.ac.th/> <https://cas.wu.ac.th/>

