

Project to develop innovative teaching media for the curriculum integrating the philosophy of sufficiency economy for chumchonmai schools and surrounding community area schools, Year 4

Project implementation

- A new community school is being evaluated as a sufficiency economy learning center.
- Disseminate knowledge to other schools, networks, and related agencies.
- Produce 2D Animation cartoons and E-Book media.
- Disseminate knowledge about the philosophy of Sufficiency Economy

Output from the project

- The produce from the project is used to make lunch for over a hundred students.

Cooperation from various organizations

- Chumchonmai School
- Network schools: 6 schools
- Student, School of Liberal Arts Thai language course Walailak University, 10 people
- Educational Service Area Office Nakhon Si Thammarat District 4

